SOPHS AND FROSH BURY THE HATCHET

Annual Hallowe'en Frolic a Larger Affair Than Usual. Profs. Serenaded in True Style

SPEECHES AND CIDER GO WELL

About eight-thirty Wednesday night the members of the two under classes gathered on the campus for their annual Hallowe'en celebration. Gideon's army had nothing on the procession to the village, almost every man had a broom-stick torch, and every man had a strong pair of lungs. The inhabitants of Clinton must have expected a few politicians in the rear of a torch-llight parade at this time of the year, but, only a rickety wagon followed in their train.

Faculty Harrangues the Mob

Knowing of cider awaiting them in the Glen, the multitude went in search of tin cups with which to drink the golden fluid, and many dimes were poured into the coffers of Mr. Allen's hardware store. Inspired by the martial music of a wash-tub, the company began to call loudly for "Bugs" at practically every house in Park Row. That gentleman finally made his appearance on a porch three houses away from the clamoring horde. In vain did the men call for doughnuts, but the only doughnuts in the Morrill domicile were canned, and the cans were lost, at least so said the worthy "Bugs."

"Bib" Reminisces

The company started on their return voyage. About half-way to the foot of the Hill a cry went up for "Bib," who came out and harangued the gathering. He spoke for every man present when he expressed his sorrow because there were no girls' boarding schools to serenade, as there had been when he was in college thirty years ago.

"Rip" was next. He came to the front door and spoke words of encouragement to the men assembled before him. "Trot" and "Fan" were found at the Psi U house. They put joy into the hearts of the "gang" and headed it toward the Glen.

Loudly did the multitude call for Prex, but he was conspicuous for his absence. Schnitz was not receiving callers, and in vain did the crowd yell for Cal and "Bill" Squires. "Brownie," he of the big heart, gave

Mc GIBENEY '14 HERE TO MORROW NIGHT

Young Alumnus Will Tell College of Experiences at the French Front. Will Return to France

Lieutenant Donald H. McGibeney '14, of the American Red Cross, attached to the French Army at the front, will speak Wednesday at 7.30 p. m. in the College Chapel. He has seen seven months of war and brings stereopticon views to illustrate the lecture.

'Max,' as his classmates know him, has had adventure crowded upon him in the two years since leaving the Hill, and according to Prex has benefitted more from travel than the latter believed possible. He delivered a similar lecture on "Religion and War" in the Chapel last spring. For five months he has been with the Southern Chautauqua and now returns to France to enter the American Aviation Corps.

Thursday McGibeney will leave the Hill for Norwich, N. Y., where he will lecture in the evening at the invitation of Wassung '13, who is principal of the high school there.

MUSICALE POSTPONED

The student musicale arranged by the Y. M. C. A. for Friday night, has been postponed until the last of the month or the fore part of December. Donoghue '17, chairman of the Y. M. C. A. social committee, has the matter in charge, and is endeavoring to obtain the services of some off-Hill talent to assist with the program.

COLLEGE SONG BOOK IN NEW EDITION

Lee and Johnson '15 announce That Publication Goes to Press This Week. Many New Songs.

The second edition of Hamilton College Songs will make its appearance on the Hill about December first according to the announcement of the editors, Lee '15 and Johnson '15. The first edition of 600 copies, published a year ago last May, was exhausted shortly after college closed. The new volume was planned for last fall, but the reorganization of the publishing firm, Bigelow & Main, and the difficulty of procuring the expensive grade of paper, necessitated delay. Considering the fact that the body of undergraduates and alumni do not number two thousand, the demand for the collection of Hamilton Songs has been remarkable.

Many New Songs

A dozen new songs are to be found in the second edition. These include "No Hiding Place," "In Those dear Old College Days," "The College

WORK ON NEW FIELD

Work on the Athletic Field progresses rapidly. The field is leveled and the track foundation laid, consisting of cobblestones and slag. Gravel and cinders will be added later, and the track will be ready for early spring training. Two miles of drain pipe are now installed under the football field, which guarantees a perfect gridiron. Grass will be sewn on the field this fall. The new ground has already been planted.

HAMILTON SWAMPS CANTON ELEVEN

Buff and Blue Completely Outplays Opponents in Game Full of Thrills for Both Sides

FRESHMAN MATERIAL STARS

Hamilton crossed St. Lawrence's goal three times during the first half of the game on Steuben Field Saturday, and by adding a safety in the second half, rolled up a total of twenty points to the Cantonites' six. The Buff and Blue representatives "came back" with punch, and by getting the jump on their opponents, cinched the game in the first few minutes of play. Straight football brought the pigskin across the Scarlet goal line after seven minutes of play.

Jones, Peck and Farrar Good

Jones '17, Peck '18, and Farrar '20 in the backfield worked well together, breaking thru the line for big gains almost at will. Pape ran the team for most of the game, and did the job well. Freshmen Gorman and Bolenius made names for themselves in the line, playing the tackle positions.

For St. Lawrence, Church, Keegan, and Captain Hayden played best, especially in the last quarter when the upstate men broke away with some fine aerial work, resulting in the only score on the home team.

Straight Football Wins

Fears for the result of the game, brought on by the fact that Schwartz was not playing on account of a broken thumb, were soon dispelled after the whistle had blown, for by good old-fashioned tactics the Hamilton backfield chased down the gridiron for two touchdowns in the first period. Gorman missed both goals, the ball hitting the cross-bar once, and being kicked at a difficult angle the second trial. Frequently the Buff and Blue backs would break away for a long run around end, or a good big gain thru the line. A flash of open play here and there, with a couple of neat forward passes, illuminated the game.

The third score came right at the start of the second period, Pape carrying the ball over. Hamilton seemed to have the opposing players completely bewildered, and whenever they got the ball they were forced to kick, while Farrar, Jones and Peck gained steadily, In this quarter Donihee intercepted Johnny Jones' forward and covered three white lines

"THE COLLEGE RECORD" STOPS PUBLICATION

October Number, the Final Issue under Pres. Stryker's Hands, Contains Full Alumni Address List

The final chapter of the Hamilton College Record has been written, and Pres. Stryker completes it in the October number with the following words:

"With this number The Record concludes its fifteenth year. It now ceases. The warmest acknowledgments are due and here are rendered to those who since 1902 have sustained and encouraged its publication."

"This issue of the Hamilton College Record announces and introduces a quarterly, expressly designed to answer the frequent and urgent requests of our graduates for regularly furnished information as to the work and status of the College," reads the opening announcement in 1902. "It will give them precisely and fully such matter as they cannot get by sporadic press reports, and will seek to keep them in living touch with the conditions and the needs, the efforts and hopes of this home of their student life which claims them always as its own and claims always their loyal interest."

During its existence The Record has faithfully presented alumni notes, vital statistics, scholarship records, and has also served as the vehicle for publishing the Clark, Pruyn, and Head Prize Orations, and the Soper Thesis.

The present number of the publication is probably the most valuable that Pres. Stryker has offered. Besides the present role of undergraduates it contains a complete and accurate list of all living alumni and their present addresses.

STACKHOUSE IS FIRE CHIEF

Fire drill may be held this week and as often as weather permits until winter sets in. On the recommendation of Chief Myers the faculty appointed Stackhouse '17 Student Fire Chief, and Emeny '17 and Huntsman '18 deputies. With last year's members as a nucleus organization will be perfected shortly.

GYMNASIUM EQUIPMENT

New equipment is being provided for the gymnasium. With increased classes Physical Director Myers has found it necessary to order six new pairs of chest weights, a buck, a horse, and a pair of parallels. Work on the pool will be undertaken as soon as bids are received from a Utica firm for cutting out the steps. A new and better method of heating the pool by steam heat is soon to be installed.

EDITORIAL.

COACH REYNOLDS WANTS ALL MEN WHO HAVE BEEN OUT FOR FOOTBALL THIS SEASON TO REPORT FOR PRACTICE TO-DAY. "PETE" WANTS THREE TEAMS IN THE FIELD EVERY AFTERNOON FOR THE REST OF THE SEASON.

The above notice is important. Those whom it concerns know who they are. So does the rest of the college. And the rest of the college wants response to Coach Reynolds' call. It is the duty of every man concerned to respond. And it is the duty of every other man to see that those men do show up for practice every afternoon. Life does not want to be forced into saying anything further on the matter. We want to BEAT UNION.

Alumni Coaching.

With but one game to play before Hamilton meets Union on the latter's field, the Buff and Blue representatives on the gridiron can see before them only ten days of grinding work, work such as they have never dreamt of, and work which will bring out the best in each man. The supreme effort is scheduled for November 18. when Hamilton College will move en masse to Schenectady, in the effort to triumph over the Garnet on foreign soil, a difficult feat, proven almost impossible already.

The old slogan, "Beat Union," is already in the air. The spirit of fight, of old-time battles, has taken its hold.

But only a beginning is apparent when we come out of the air down to the earth. The team has a long, hard road ahead. Pete is doing his best, whipping green material into good varsity shape, and doing well, but his squad at present lacks the machine-like form, the unity of play, and scythe-like interference which every Hamilton man knows is necessary to beat Union.

We want alumni coaching. It is all well enough to pick flaws in the scrimmages, and point out how this and that play should be worked out, but the team needs the benefit of such advice. And they need the direct benefit. They need coaching, individual coaching, detailed, personal our wonder-coach, and working to the limit, and has the college solidly behind him. We want the alumni stars of yore, you men who have helped beat Union before, we want you to help beat Union again.

Come back with "the goods." We know that you have them.

Alumni Want Better Schedule

Williams, Amherst and Wesleyan Suggested for Future Football Opponents

Editor of Hamilton LIFE:

"A Freshman class of 90 men" is good news, but it does not end the larger Hamilton problem. The College still needs more recognition from the public—more advertisement—or we must continue to fear another slump in numbers like that of a year ago. We cannot hope for a steady suply of material until Hamilton becomes as well known as Lafayette. Wesleyan, Williams, Amherst, and other colleges of that class.

We believe that a new athletic policy is needed to meet that purpose, as we are not now meeting it. Specifically, we urge that next year's football management drop Clarkson, University of Buffalo and R. P. I. from our football schedule and substitute games with such institutions as Williams, Amherst or Wesleyan. A revival, for instance, of the Williams game at Albany would be most desirable. The Columbia, Union Rochester and Hobart games should, of course, be continued. The playing of one good game in Utica might well be considered.

The need for such a change is particularly apparent to the Alumni since their support for Hamilton teams is asked first and foremost as an advertisement for the College. Have the games fulfilled this intention? Most of them have failed to do so, not because our teams were weak, but because we have not had the courage to play the games that count. Our schedules follow the dictates of caution so completely that the team rarely enters the lime-light at all. That 14-7 game against Columbia was "news" and got a column of space in every New York paper. It was read by a general public that included thousands of prospective college men. Such a victory was a triumph, but even a defeat would have put the college prominently before the public we want most to reach, and in good collegiate company. Give us more games like it! Hamilton might beat Clarkson or Alfred for ten years without getting such a write-up. We realize that Hamilton cannot turn out a team that will wallop Columbia every year—nor defeat St. Lawrence or Hobart, for that matter. But to argue from that fact that we must defeat at any price by dodging, so far as possible, all dangerous rivals is not proper Hamilton spirit. We have bowed to the large college bugaboo, and now discover to our surprise that it is sometimes easier to beat Columbia than Hobart. Given Pete Reynolds' training, no team from the Hill should fear injury from any line-up it is called upon to meet.

We congratulate the baseball management on the creditable list of opponents presented for next season. Unfortunately, since college baseball does not win the newspaper publicity given to football, the choice of a schedule is of less importance.

An incidental gain from the broader program suggested would be the attraction of football men to the college and the probable strengthening of the teams. But of chief importance is the certainty that Hamilton would become more widely known.

In the last half St. Lawrence resorted to an aggressive aerial attack, which finally resulted in their scoring, which was helped along by many substitutions in the Hamilton defense, and Farrar's fumble in the middle of the field. Hayden ran 20 yards thru a broken field for the score. Farrar took the ball to the Scarlet's 1-yard line in the third period, but Pape could not plant the pigskin across the chalk-mark in three tries.

his auditors a masterful oration with his customary rapid-fire delivery. Lustily were his stirring utterances applauded, and then began the stampede for "eats" in the Glen.

Like most of the faculty, the doughnuts were an absent quantity, except to a favored few. However, there was an abundance of cider, and the tin cups were drained with marvelous rapidity. "Mootch" Meola said the cider was very good. "Theory" Link, after stating that he had nothing to say, talked for five minutes without stopping. He commented on the excellent spirit shown "Jack" Bratton took the stump, and in behalf of the sophomores, he welcomed the freshmen to the college Couper responded for the freshmen, and after burying the hatchet the party broke away.

Well." Clinton Scollard '81 and "Bob" Hughes '90, who wrote the quartet favorite, "Scollard's Serenade," give the college "An Autumn Song." The words of the "Faculty Scurfs," censored from the previous volume, now appear.

Minor changes in text and harmony appear on almost every page, to agree more with undergraduate usage.

Handsome Make-up

In make-up the new book will be identical with the former volume. There are 110 pages, with blue cloth binding stamped with the College seal and name in gold. Two large 9 x 11 pages of buff india text will again be printed in blue. It is far from exaggeration to say that in appearance the Hamilton Song Book surpasses that of any other college or university.

With but a very few exceptions the songs are those that belong to the college. No attempt has been made by the editors to include material from other institutions.

Arrangements for the sale of the volume will be made later.

—Twenty-eight men from the three upper classes and twenty-three freshmen entered the try-outs for the varsity debate squad at Colgate last week.

BUFFALO UNIVERSITY HERE SATURDAY

Advance Dope on Bison Eleven Fails to Show Their True Strength. Have a Star at Quarterback

The University of Buffalo, which meets Hamilton on Steuben Field this Saturday, is more or less of an unknown quantity. The two teams have met only two opponents in common, Rochester, who beat Buffalo, 14 to 2, and Hobart, who whitewashed Buffalo 7 to 0. From these scores it looks as if the team from the West has the edge on the Buff and Blue, but it is difficult to come to conclusions from this comparison.

Second Season of Football

Last year was Buffalo's first experience on the gridiron for several seasons. Naturally it was not very successful, their only victory being over Rochester. This year with one sesason behind them they have played better football. In their opening game, after a bare week's practice, they lost to the Allegheny eleven on the latter's field to a 28 to 0 score. Not discouraged by this defeat, Buffalo came back the next week with a well-carned triumph, 9 to 7, over the Thiel College team. Cooper, Buffalo's quarterback, engineered the victory with a clever fild goal when the score was 7 to 6 against them. Cooper is also clever with the forward pass, getting off fast and accurately.

CAP ROW YESTERDAY

The slimers donned their green skypieces yesterday morning before Chapel. As usual, they proceeded from the Gym to the chapel, with interruptions. However, the interruptions were rusty and scattered. The frosh are proud of their caps.

Edgar Couper, of Binghamton, has been elected president of the Freshman Class; Holden Farrar, of Montpelier, Vt., vice-president; Schuyler Brandt, of Oak Park, Ill., secretary; John VanNorden, of New York, treasurer.

—Prof. S. J. Saunders is steadily improving from his operation but will not return to his classes until after the Christmas vacation. Prof. Carruth has taken up the registration work.

—Riley '18 is out for assistant manager of Musical Clubs.

Freshman Team Has Head Start On Sophomore Eleven

The betting odds on the annual Sophomore-Freshman football melee scheduled for Nov. 25 are still even, and on paper there is little choice. The frosh have a squad of about fifteen, and have an advantage over the '19 men in being able to gather an eleven from the varsity squad. Atwood, Bolenius, Gorman, Hyde, Moffat, Burke, Watson, Puls, Johnson, and Cairns are candidates for the line positions, while for the backfield the freshmen can call on Farrar, Warfield, Elliott, Bodle, Sandblom and Sturgess.

The sophs do not lack good material, with eleven men who played last year, but are handicapped in their need to put up a defense against the heavy frosh line. McLean, captain last year, holds down a job on Hamilton's team along with Welsh, Pape Ogden and Spinning. Riley, Dayton, Keeler, Hamlin, Bratton and Wheeler played on last season's sophomore team.

Burke is the Freshman manager. The faculty will allow games with the following provision: No cuts can be taken for the games. Teams from outside towns can play on the campus after the regular season is over, and the freshman team can play outside games. All money for these expenses must be raised by class tax, however, since no funds will be provided by the college.

Chief Myers will help both classes to prepare for the contests, and by all dope signs they will put up an excellent game.

NICHOLS BACK FROM ILLINOIS

A two weeks campaign of Hamilton advertising in the vicinity of Chicago has been most successful and L. Heyl Nichols '16, who is secretary of the College Extension Board, expects at least twelve freshmen from the western metropolis next fall. Nichols found a warm spirit for the alma mater among the western alumni and with their co-operation he succeeded in establishing Hamilton's name in several prep. schools.

Chicago Suburbs Fruitful

Nichols covered northern Illinois, and spent much time in the suburbs of Chicago from which five men came to the Hill this fall. In Chicago there is an alumni club that vies with the New York club for activity: it is constantly increasing in number of members and is likewise conserving its popularity by stimulating the Hill spirit in sub-freshmen.

A week ago Thursday night the Chicago alumni gave a banquet at the University Club. Twenty sub-freshmen were present and they heard much about the Hill from various alumni. Heyl '99, president of the Western Alumni Association, was toastmaster.

Parmelee '18's father, altho not a Hamilton man, described a recent visit to the Hill, and set forth in an attractive manner the value of Hamilton environment. Maurice Jenks '03 spoke briefly and Dr. W. C. Covert, Wabash '87, father of Covert '16, addressed the banqueters.

—Prof Daniel Chase, former director of athletics on the Hill, returned for a visit last week to interest fellows in college in the physical training work begun this fall in all the New York State high schools. Prof. Chase is State Inspector of Rural Schools for the State Military Training Commission.

DRUMMOND STIRS COLLEGE BODY

"Pep" was the watchword of the College Dinner held in Commons Friday night to encourage and give spirit to the team on the eve of the St. Lawrence game. Drummond '01 gave a rousing speech for "Fight" and told the team to "go out on the field tomorrow and tear them up." The long yell showed the approval for his speech. Bull '18 was elected assistant manager and Hasbrouck '18 manager of Musical Clubs, succeeding "Sub" Donoghue '17. The management of the skating rink was voted to the Students' Association, which assigned it to Hawks '18, Director of Intramural Sports. Brockway, Orr and Lyon '17 were appointed a committee to lay a new walk at the Arbor. Ives '19 was awarded the fall tennis cup, and after many yells and songs the bunch left, confident of victory.

CHARLATANS CAST PICKED

The Charlatans candidates met on Sunday night at the Psi U house and discussed the season's plans. Dates for rehearsals were fixed at Sunday and Thursday of each week. The second act of "Stop Thief" was read and parts assigned. The cast now stands as follows:

Cluney, Baumer; Doogan, Bristol; Mr. Carr, Ives; Sergeant, Woolnough, Brockway; Thompson, Donoghue Young; Nell, Dodge; Joan, Gaines; Mrs. Carr, Fuller; Dr. Willoughby Fursman; Caroline, Calkins, Valentine; Madge, VanNorden; Detective Martin; Minister, Link, Yeandle.

A meeting will be held at 7.30 on Thursday night at the Psi U house.

—Vermont has been given official authorization by the War Department for the training of students in military science.

BASKETBALL BEGINS MONDAY, NOV. 27

Intramural Department Slates Sigs, Dekes, Chi Psis and Alpha Delts for Opening Night

Plans for the 1916-17 Interfraternity Basketball season are well under way. Arrangements for the year were agreed upon by the representatives of the various crowds at a meeting held Saturday morning. Instead of two games a week, as heretofore, three will be held, on Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings. The first contest is scheduled for Monday, November 27, between the Sigs and D. Us., and the Alpha Delts and Chi Psis. Each team will play every other team once. Two games will be played each night.

Frosh Material

Some of the teams have been practicing nightly for two weeks, but the real work is to be done between now and the opening of the season. A good deal of promising freshman material has been revealed, decidedly improving the prospects of some of the crowds.

The line-ups for the first games are expected to be about as follows:

Sigma Phi: Bristol, Parmelee, Kennedy, Ogden, Johnson.

Delta U: Behan, Pape, Griffith, Lowell, Valentine.

Chi Psi: Root, Lyon, McLean, Mahnken, Leckner.
